PERTINENT QUESTIONS ASKED BY EXAMINER

Sheriff Wm. Linke, Former Member of Board of Public Service, Only Witness Tuesday Morning

Examiner Heck Is Going Into Every Detail in the Water Works Probe—Witness Testifies as to His Knowledge of Board's Action.

At the examination Monday, Mr. John P. Lamb was the principal witness, and his testimony pertained chiefly to the letting of the water works contract to the American Light and Water Co. in October, 1905. The Advocate was unable to have a reporter present to take the evidence, but it will be given later.

"Why was the contract for the material and distribution of the municipal water works plant let to the American Light and Water Company at their bid of $148,745.79, when the Ohio Contracting Company had bid $135,683.29, or over $13,000 lower?"

"Why did the Board of Public Service make a contract with Engineer L. K. Davis to furnish plans for a plant to cost $565,000, when only $300,000 was at its disposal, after paying him $600 for furnishing specifications for a system to cost less than the amount raised on the $300,000 bond issue, which was at the time tied up by injunction proceedings, brought by Charles A. Vaden, and before the matter had been finally decided by the supreme court?"

"Why did the Board of Public Service accept revised plans, drawn by L. K. Davis, for a water works system to radiate from a point situated upon ground upon which the Board held an option, to be exercised only when a previous option upon the same land had been foreclosed by James K. Haniff?"

These were the questions that were asked Sheriff William Linke, who was the only witness examined by State Examiner Heck at the Tuesday morning session of the inquiry into the "ins and outs" of the water works question.

Sheriff Linke was a member of the Board of Public Service from February 14, 1905, until January 1, 1906, filling the unexpired term of James Wiley, deceased.

Sheriff Linke said that his testimony was to the best of his recollection, and upon several occasions his memory was refreshed by the inquirer, who showed him records of the proceedings of the Board (at the time he was a member) and which were identified and incorporated as a part of his testimony.

"We first secured an engineer," said the witness, "not by advertising, but by writing to several whose names appeared in an engineers' journal which the board received."

"I don't remember how many replies we got but each gave the amount that he would charge for his work. We accepted the bid of L. K. Davis as the lowest and best, but before entering into a contract with him, the Board visited the water works plant at Indianapolis, which had been designed by him, and at which his father was the superintendent."

"It may be," said the witness, "that the efficiency of the plant was due to the management of Davis, Sr., rather than to any excellence of the designs of the younger Davis."

"At this time I did not know of L. K. Davis's plans, and the Board accepted those of Davis. My understanding was that Davis was to furnish the plans, and also pay an inspector, satisfactory to the city, and then if the city saw fit he was to receive $2,450, including the original salary, upon which he claimed to have a patent he was to make what he could out of that item."

"He knew that we only had $300,000 and agreed to furnish the above mentioned items to the city."

"Davis was allowed $300, and this amount was paid to him. This was upon my motion seconded by Livingston."

"We then received a letter from him as we supposed a contract, and we thought too high, we turned it down, and we re-advised for bids."

"Davis then revised his plans and the estimated cost of a complete system, making a circle of the entire city for about $565,000. We had then adopted the Davis slow sand filtration system, and the complete works was to be for fire protection, and also private consumption."

"We had told Davis to prepare plans for a $300,000 plant, and his specifications for one to cost $500,000, was not according to the Board's instructions."

"Did you then know that the Davis plans called for a $565,000 system?"

"Yes, sir."
"Well, then, of what value was these plans as a matter of fact?"
"Just to give us an idea."
"Then they were of no practical value?"
"Well, Davis did more work than we paid him for," was the answer.

"Upon Davis's revised plans, by cutting out the filtration plant, the double 12-inch mains, and certain valves, the consulting engineer stated that a plant for fire protection only could be built for the $300,000."

The record showed that on August 17, 1905, the original contract with Davis was rescinded by the board, and on the same day a new one was made and Davis made new plans which were submitted to bidders, but the board reserved the right to refuse all bids, which was done.

"We proceeded upon the advice of Mr. A. A. Stasel as Solicitor P. B. Smythe at the time was out of the city. Mr. Stasel afterward became attorney for the American Light and Water company."

Mr. Heck then endeavored to find out from Mr. Linke why the contract for Davis's second set of plans carried with it a compensation of 4 per cent of the contract price.

"Upon these second plans," said Sheriff Linke, "six bids were received by advertisements. These bids were opened September 20, 1905, and the contract let on October 1."

"No, sir, there was no star chamber session, and I don't remember any session on the 30th of September."

"I don't remember that Mr. Lamb wanted to postpone the entire matter, or that any influence was brought to postpone it."

"Before the contract was let a committee of the Board of Trade consisting of W. H. Smith, J. J. Carroll, Geo. B. Sprague, C. C. Metz, W. L. Prout and W. C. Miller met with us and advised us to go ahead with the $565,000 and they would help to raise the additional $265,000 on bonds."

"Mr. Haniff had an option on the land purchased, and the Board of Public Service took an option from him. It was understood that if the city would agree to purchase the land from him at $200 per acre, he would close his option on the land, and we took his word for it."

DESPONDENT

On Account of Financial Troubles, Perry County Farmer Ends Life By Hanging Self.

Thornville, Jan. 1.—Despondent because his property had been advertised for sale for taxes, Lafayette Swinehart, aged 52, of near Glenford, climbed 50 feet to the top of a tree and hanged himself with a log chain, early yesterday.

He did not return for dinner and his family later found him dead.

He leaves an invalid wife and three sons.

BANDIT

Was Disinherited Son of English Baron—Identified by His Sister.

Chicago, Jan. 4.—That Harry B. Featherstone, bandit and safe blow, who was killed by a Chicago policeman, while holding up a saloon, New Year's morning, was the disinherited son of a noble English family, was sworn to here yesterday at the inquest of the noble's death by his sister, Miss Emma Featherstone, who declared that her brother was rightfully the heir of the name Lord Featherstone.

Featherstone lived here with his mother, sister and wife, under the name of Featherstone, but to the police he always was known as Featherstone. His sister, in describing the dead man's lineage, said at the inquest:

"My grandfather, Henry Bandit Featherstone, was the nephew and oldest son of Lord Featherstone, the duke of an English nobleman, but he ran away and married a poor Irish girl. For this he was disinherited. He came to America and settled at Oswego, N. Y., where he prospered."

"Twenty years ago we learned that the last Lord Featherstone was dead and that we were heirs to part of his estate. Harry went to England to claim the estate and found it had been secured by his brother Wallace. He was the rightful heir, but we never could secure our rights in the case."

PREDICT FALL OF THE BEAUTIFUL

Washington, Jan. 4.—Heavy snow will set in over the lake region, and the middle and northern and central valley region, and will begin in the middle Atlantic and New England states Wednesday, according to a special bulletin issued by the weather bureau today.

FIRST WAR PHOTOS FROM NICARAGUA; SNAPSHOTS TAKEN IN SIDE THE REBEL LINES

The accompanying group of pictures is reproduced from the first photograph to reach the United States since the landing of American marines in Nicaragua. The pictures show the landing of the Buffalo, the American forces to escape to Mexico, the group of insurgent officers are members of General Estrada's staff, and the snapshot of the marines on the pier was taken at Bluff City, near Bluefields. All of the pictures were taken just before the battle of Rama, where Zelaya's forces were routed. Zelaya, having been allowed by the American forces to escape to Mexico, is hurrying defiance at the United States government. He openly declares now, as was asserted at Washington at the time of the elec-

WEALTHY NEW YORK BANKER EXPIRES VERY SUDDENLY

San Francisco, Jan. 4.—The death here last night of D. O. Mills, banker philanthropist of New York and California, removed one of the conspicuous figures in Pacific coast affairs. He was one of the original "Bears" going around the Horn to San Francisco in 1849, and later established the banking house of D. O. Mills and company in Sacramento, after making his original "stake" as a merchant in a mining camp. Since that time his firm has handled a good portion of the financial business of the state. Accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. Whitehead Reid, wife of the American ambassador to Great Britain, Mr. Mills arrived in California six weeks ago. Complaining to Mrs. Reid that he was very tired Mr. Mills started to retire last evening and suddenly collapsed, dying before his physician could arrive. He was 84 years of age.

SHIP SUBSIDY BILL INTRODUCED IN HOUSE

Washington, Jan. 4.—The administration ship subsidy bill was introduced in the house today by Representative Humphrey, (Republican of Washington). The measure is the result of a compromise between shipping facilities which favor the ship subsidy idea, and Republican leaders in the house today expressed confidence that it would be passed at this session. The bill was presented to President Taft several weeks ago, and Representative Humphrey says it has his endorsement. It contains three main features, the payment of mail subsidies, the exaction of a heavier tonnage tax on foreign vessels, and the admission of foreign vessels to American registry for foreign trade only with the proviso that these ships shall not share in the mail subsidy. It is expected the bill will greatly strengthen the American merchant marine, which is now inferior to that of most old world countries.

MET DEATH IN WRECK

Madison, 3, Jan. 4.—Three men were instantly killed and five seriously injured early today in a wreck on the St. Paul road at Roscoe. The victims are all workmen. Some of the injured will die. A work train collided head-on with an extra freight. Both engines were demolished and traffic was delayed for hours.

DEAN BILL HEARD FROM

Solons at Columbus Have Busy Session Ahead Which May Last Through Month of May.

Columbus, O., Jan. 4.—A bill making it a penitentiary offense for any man or the officers of any corporation to participate in any combination in restraint of trade is to be introduced by Senator Young of Darke county. The Valentine anti-trust law merely provides against the forming of trust officials. Young lives in Greenville, where he says a grocer trust exists which raises prices at will. "They don't care anything about a fine, but a sentence in the pen would stop the thing," said Young.

Senator Thomas A. Dean of Sandusky county, announced today that he will re-introduce his bill, defeated at the last session, which provides in effect, that municipalities in dry counties shall become wet when a majority of the votes cast in the municipalities are for the wet ticket.

The anti-saloon league will bring every possible pressure to bear to defeat it.

Representative Justice, of Putnam county, is projecting a bill providing a four-year term for all county officials except sheriff and treasurer.

This is Mr. Justice's fourth legislative session, and this bill will be the first that he has introduced. He says that while frequently having had it in mind, he has not had time to introduce it. "I have been at home, he always found that some other legislator had a similar idea first."

The bill to tax all hunters in Ohio a dollar each and to license to hunt will be re-introduced at the present session of the legislature. Gen. Speaks, state fish and game warden, is the father of the bill, and he interviewed a number of house members today with reference to the measure. The measure will permit hunters to employ as many guns as they desire at a dollar each license. The hunter, and not the gun, is to be taxed.

The House at today's session adopted the Senate resolution to probe the affairs of the State Treasurer's office under the McKinnon regime and other executive departments if occasion demands. This was the only business attempted, and adjournment was immediately taken until tomorrow at 1:30.

INCREASE IN TAX DUPLICATE

Columbus, Jan. 4.—Reports from county auditors just compiled by Auditor of State Billington, show an increase in the grand tax duplicate of Ohio for the year 1929 as compared with 1928 of $52,345,788. The 1929 grand duplicate amounted to $2,389,975,349.

FIGHT AMMONIA FUMES.

Philadelphia, Jan. 4.—Because of the fumes of escaping ammonia, firemen were compelled to use helmets equipped with oxygen tanks yesterday in putting out a fire following the explosion of an ammonia tank at the Pennsylvania Cold Storage Warehouse Company's plant. The damage was $25,000. Produce to the value of $150,000 stored in the plant is threatened as a result of the breaking down of the machinery.

KILLED IN FALL FROM AEROPLANE

Bordeaux, France, Jan. 4.—Leon Le Grand, the noted aviator, was killed today by a fall from his aeroplane while making a flight here.

NO DANGER OF FLOODS

Pittsburg, Jan. 4.—Reports received from the rivermen today say that although the heavy Sunday and Monday rains was general throughout the Ohio valley, as was the returning cold last night, it is not believed there is now any danger of floods. A few remaining ice corges are reported from various points, mostly in the Ohio tributaries, but these are expected to break up during the day.

SPLENDID REPORT FILED BY TREASURER CREAMER WITH GOVERNOR HARMON

Columbus, O., Jan. 4.—Reforms of great merit are exhibited in the first annual report of State Treasurer Creamer, filed with Governor Harmon at noon today.

It is shown that under the competitive bidding system in the letting of state funds to banks, at interest under the depository law, which Treasurer Creamer has had in operation only half of the year, the state received $20,000 more interest during the year with $1,000,000 less money to lend than was received under the bankers' bid system. The total interest received was $155,284,331.

GREAT BLIZZARD RAGING THROUGHOUT WESTERN STATES

Denver, Jan. 4.—Eight persons are dead, railroads are blocked and enormous damage has been done throughout the west by snow storms, blizzards, floods and avalanches, according to reports received here today. Four men were killed near Shoshone, Idaho, by a snow slide, one man froze to death in the snow at Iowa Mine, and one man and two boys were frozen to death in New Mexico. HARD AT WORK ON OHIO LAWS

First Care of Legislature in Regular Session.

REVISION OF STATE CODES

Must Get It Out of the Way Before General Legislation Can Be Taken Up—Also State Republican Leaders Time to Fix Up a Program—Do Attempt to Deal with Problem of Economic Governor.

BY ORWELL C. RIDDLE.

Columbus, O., Jan. 4. An enormous amount of work has been done for the present session of the Ohio legislature, beginning with the revision of the state code, a revision of the state constitution.

This commission consists of Arthur Governor James M. Campbell, former Secretary of State, L. C. Taylor and Judge William L. Smith. It has been at work four years preparing a new revision of state laws, and its final report was submitted at the opening of the session. It is the first revision of the statutes since 1906.

Under the instructions of the resolution creating it, the commission was authorized to study the laws, which means simply that all laws relating to any subject shall be assembled in one group to facilitate comparison and to strike out redundancies in the text wherever possible, but in no sense was the commission to change the meaning or construction of any statute by such revision.

The entire work will now be given over carefully by 14 committees specially selected for that purpose, to see that the alterations made do not

will be the solution of the several tax questions that press for consideration.

The interval to be filled on revision of the statutes will also give the Republican leaders time to work out their program of action. Governor Campbell's message has not yet been received, but it is expected that the revision of the state code will be the first item on the agenda of the session.

change the meaning of the statutes. This is necessary because, in order to put the revision into effect, each separate portion must be introduced with an enabling clause the same as a new bill and take the usual course of procedure. When re-enacted it will be practically new legislation superseding the revised statutes now in use, and will be the basis for amendment in future legislation.

For this reason general legislation at this session will be deferred until after the re-enactment of the revised laws. Some speak of it as the new code which is correct in a sense, but not so well understood as the more common expression "revised statutes," for this is a revision of the "revised statutes" of the past two years and becomes in fact the new revised statutes of Ohio.

During the three weeks that are to be devoted almost exclusively to the new code, there will be no general legislation except as may be submitted by the House committee or sanctioned by the committee on rules.

Some discrepancy in the general legislative program has been pointed out. It is pointed out that the revision of the statutes will be given immediate attention, but the House committee has no power to do so.

CONGRESS IS STILL QUIET.

No Wild Eurst of Activity Marks Reassembling.

IS IT A DO NOTHING SESSION?

Chapman Clark Predicts That There Will Be Nothing But Appropriations and Ship Subsidies—General Gordon, the New Senator From Mississippi—Tells Busy With Social Messages.

Washington, Jan. 4. The reassembling of Congress after the holidays is marked by no wild display of fireworks. In the beginning of the session the cause was that the president had not yet received his official message, and there was nothing to do but to wait until he did. Now that the commerce message is ready, the session is under way.

AMUSEMENTS

Keith Stock Co.

The Keith Stock company is holding forth at the Auditorium this week, and at the opening performance on last night they played to a capacity house and every person left with the satisfaction of seeing one of the cleverest shows ever offered here in popular priced repertoire.

The play, "My Jim," is one of those comedy dramas dealing with life on the farm and evils of the city, New York. It has its thrilling climaxes, not overdone, however, and the comedy was clean and good. Mr. Keith appeared in the role of "My Jim," and his delineation of the downy country and von the applause of the audience, and the welcome they gave Mr. Keith made it seem as he said, as if he were coming home, although this is his first appearance here.

Mr. Keith is supported by an exceptionally good company, all of the people being nice looking, and Miss Helen Leece was popular in the role of Helie Kinsbridge, the sweet heart of Jim, who died much to her laurels in the specialty number, "Bessie Warren and R. H. Amos are both very pretty young women and clever."

Realistic pictures of the horrible Cherry Mine disaster conclude this excellent offering.

"The Stepson" is a play of the age will be inaugurated at the Auditorium theatre on Jan. 10. The play is "The Stepson" and is as sweet and simple as a spring breeze and its truth highly commendable. "The Stepson" is neither a problem play nor a melodrama, but just what its unique catch line proclaims, "a new story told."

At no time is the play an ordinary one, and although old-fashioned from familiar conditions, and at times, perhaps, suggestive of old-time favorites as "The Stepson" and "The Stepson" are the original story and freedom from clatter and cloying melodrama. "The Stepson" is the most fastidious of the new. The story is one of contrast between the rural wisdom of a sea-borne sailor and the refined ignorance of an exquisite New York belle. Placing these conditions upon the girl's own ground, so to speak, forms an unusual setting to a most surprising finale. "The Stepson" is a play of genuine human nature, and is presented by an exceptionally clever interpretative cast.

Lawrence Martelle made a very clever "villain." The specialties introduced between the acts would grace any vaudeville stage, and this, in connection with the merit of the plays, should fill the Auditorium every night.

The Orpheum has a very good show for the first part of this week and the bill offers variety and entertainment, which two qualities are the requisites for a first class vaudeville show.

The Great Mexican Marimba Quartet is winning popular favor with the excellency of its work, and as we have had musicians of almost every other nationality, the Mexicans are now receiving a royal welcome.

Nick and Lida Russell have a skit entitled "The Professor and the Substitute," which is clever, and both are hard workers. Lyall & Raburn, billed as "Sis and Cy," have a delightfully funny rube act, and are making good with a vengeance. Billy Burr has a single act into which he introduces some good comedy, and his line of dope gets the desired effect.

The Great Mexican Marimba Quartet is winning popular favor with the excellency of its work, and as we have had musicians of almost every other nationality, the Mexicans are now receiving a royal welcome.

Nick and Lida Russell have a skit entitled "The Professor and the Substitute," which is clever, and both are hard workers. Lyall & Raburn, billed as "Sis and Cy," have a delightfully funny rube act, and are making good with a vengeance. Billy Burr has a single act into which he introduces some good comedy, and his line of dope gets the desired effect.

HIGH SCHOOL ALUMNI HELD INITIAL BANQUET

The initial banquet of the Alumni Association of Newark High School was held on Monday evening in the Plymouth Congregational church and covers were spread for a five course supper for fifty of the eighty-nine graduates of the class of 1909. A short musical program was enjoyed before the feast and during the serving a number of interesting addresses were given and many toasts responded to. Mr. Paul Russell gave an entertaining discourse on "Reminiscences of School Days."

A constitution has been drawn up, dated November 27th, and it will have for its charter list the names of the graduates of class 1909. It is hoped that all these signatures may be secured by June when a large banquet will be held shortly after the commencement exercises. All persons holding diplomas from the Newark High School are asked to join at once and it is sincerely hoped that a large number will respond as it is the intention to make these reunions the most delightful of anything ever given in this city, to promote good fellowship and the interests of our already well equipped public schools. As an example of part of the work to be taken up by the association, Mr. Stanley Wilson spoke of the large picture of one of the most learned and highly esteemed superintendents of the Newark schools, the late Prof. J. C. Hartzler, being stored away in a closet in the High School building. He asked the corresponding secretary to write at once to the board of education asking that the picture be hung in its accustomed place, on the walls of the interior of the building. Let every graduating class, or each graduate, individually take it upon himself or herself as their duty to join this association, which, if the proper interest is taken in it, will be able to do a great amount of good for our schools and the promotion of education. As each class joins, it will have the privilege to have the name of one of its members placed upon the charter honorary role. Miss Columbia Thompson has been chosen as the honorary member of the class of 1909.

All announcements of future meetings will be made through the columns of the local newspapers. The officers of the association elected last evening are: President, Paul Russell; vice president, Stanford Smith; treasurer, Nelson Metz; corresponding secretary, Selma Heberbach; home secretary, Edith McCann, and anyone wishing to join, may do so by notifying any of the officers.

The following lines were read by Mr. Shannon at last night's meeting:

Six months or more have passed away,
Since last we met commencement day.
Come, what of what?—let me ask,
Has each one found their own true task?

This evening we all have come
From country, city, shop and home.
As brothers and sisters, hand in hand
To organize an Alumni Band.

We're the class of Nineteen-Nine,
On the spot and right in line,
And nothing shall ever cut or cool
Our love for good old Newark High school.

We think this loyal High school spirit
Should grow—the world should hear it.
So come to order, in this session,
We'll form an Alumni Association.

END OF A RED NOSE.

New Pink-Colored Product That Heals and Mends Skin Imperfections.

A peculiar feature of psoriasis, a new skin discovery, is that it is naturally flesh-colored and contains no grease, so that when used on the face for the complexion, or for pimples, red noses, or any other inflammations, blemishes, or discolorations, its presence cannot be detected. It can thus be applied in the daytime, the natural color of the skin being immediately restored and the actual healing and curing process accomplished in a few days. It can be had of any pharmacist who sells pure drugs. Frank D. Hart makes a specialty of it. Fifty cents' worth will answer either for the troubles mentioned or in curing ordinary cases of eczema. Itching stops at once.

Any one who will write to the Emergency Laboratories, No. 32 West Twenty-fifth Street, New York, can secure, by mail free of charge, a supply sufficient to cure a small eczema surface or clear a complexion overnight and remove pimples in twenty-four hours.

at the residence, the Rev. Mr. Harpster officiating.

Interment was made at Ithaca, the old home of Mr. Worley, from whence he came to Columbus about a year ago. Mr. Worley was a war veteran, having served in Company H, 76th O. V. I. He leaves, besides his son in Columbus, a son, Hamilton, residing at Vanatta. He also leaves two brothers, John P. Worley, of Mt. Vernon, and Andrew, of Newark. His wife died over a year ago. —Columbus Dispatch.

GEORGE K. LOUGHMAN.

George K. Loughman, aged 83 years, 9 months and 15 days, died Dec. 29, 1909, at the home of his son, three miles north of Brownsville. He was united in marriage Feb. 14, 1851, to Elizabeth Wise, who preceded him to the land eternal Feb. 13, 1908. He leaves to mourn his death 5 children, 17 grandchildren and 7 great-grandchildren. The children are: Warner E. Loughman, Morgan county; Sarah A. Duncan, Newark; D. P. Loughman, Brownsville; Maggie Skinner, Clay Lick, and Charles Loughman, who died in youth.

He was a kind husband, a loving father, a good neighbor, and was always ready to lend a helping hand.

The funeral was held Dec. 31, 1909, Rev. Kolp officiating, interment being made in the Brownsville cemetery. We wish to thank the choir for their assistance and also the neighbors for their kindness during his long illness.

We have lost our dear grandfather.

He has bid us all adieu.

He has gone to live in heaven,

And his form is lost from view.

All is dark within our dwelling—

Lonely are our hearts today

For the one we loved so dearly

Has forever passed away.

Oh, that dear one! How we loved him!

Oh, how hard to give him up!

But an angel came down for him

And removed him from our flock.

And we long to cross the river—

Long to rest upon that shore—

There to see and know and love him.

With the Savior evermore.

FARMER BRINGS SUIT AGAINST FENCE COMPANY

Val Wilson, Michael Neel, A. F. Van Nostrum, Emanuel Armstrong and W. W. Armstrong, two of whom reside in Dayton, O., and three in Loudon, O., were arrested on a warrant issued by Justice Holton at the instance of O. B. Young, a prominent farmer, residing in the Cherry Valley, on the charge of obtaining money under false pretenses. The arrests were made by Constable Barnes, who brought the men to this city. Young claimed that the men represented to him that they were members of the Eastern Ohio Fence Company, an Ohio corporation, which had in its treasury between $14,000 and $15,000; that the stock of the company was valuable and worth par; that the corporation was organized to build live post and woven wire fences, and that they also made other pretensions. Mr. Young says that by reason of the false representations made he was induced to give two promissory notes, each for $500, one due in one year from date and the other in two years from date, at the rate of 8 per cent interest. Mr. Young claims that there was not in the treasury of the corporation at that time between $14,000 and $15,000, but that there was only $1,872.72; that the stock was not of par value; that the scheme was not practicable and would not be carried out, and that the company did not have contracts for fences to pay for the stock that day subscribed by the plaintiff for the earnings thereof; that the company had not paid two dividends from its earnings from the corporation, and that it was not in a position to declare another dividend. Smythe & Smythe, attorneys for Young, and Mitchell for the defendants. The men each gave bond in the sum of $200 for their appearance in court on the 18th of January.

at the residence, the Rev. Mr. Harpster officiating.

THE CAUSE OF COLDS

Good Advice Regarding the Prevention of Coughs and Colds.

If people would only fortify and strengthen the system, the majority of cases of coughs, colds and pneumonia might be avoided. These troubles are frequently due to weakness, which produces a catarrhal condition of the mucous membrane, which is an internal skin of the body. When this skin is weakened it becomes easily infected with germs which cause many of the diseases to which flesh is heir. Healthy mucous membranes are essential safeguards of the body's general health.

An excellent aid in the prevention of coughs, colds, pneumonia, and such like infectious diseases, is a remedy that will prevent or cure catarrh.

We have a remedy which we honestly believe to be unsurpassed in excellence for the prevention of coughs, colds and all catarrhal conditions. It is the prescription of a famous physician, who has an enviable reputation of thirty years of cures gained through the use of this formula. We promise to make no charge for the medicine should it fail to do as we claim. We urge everybody who has need of such a medicine to try Rexall Muc-Tone.

It stands to reason that we could not afford to make such statements and give our own personal guarantee to this remedy if we were not prepared to prove the reasonableness of our claim in every particular, and we see no reason why any one should hesitate to accept our offer and try it.

We have two sizes of Rexall Muc-Tone, prices 50 cents and $1. Sometimes a 50-cent bottle is sufficient to give marked relief. As a general thing the most chronic case is relieved with an average of three large bottles. You can obtain Rexall Remedies in Newark only at our store.—The Rexall Store, Hall's Drug Store, 10 North Side Square.

MORTALITY REPORT PREPARED BY CITY HEALTH OFFICER

The annual report of the board of health of the city has been prepared by Dr. W. H. Knauss, the health officer, and some interesting figures are shown in the statement for the year of 1909.

During the year there were 292 deaths from all causes, whereas in 1908 there were 309. More children were born in 1908 than in 1909 and the figures submitted by the attending physicians show that the births last year totaled 411, while in the year previous 517 children were born.

Dr. Knauss and Sanitary Police Officer Ben Halzer were very active in fighting contagious diseases and so their efforts is due the record that in the entire twelve months only 85 cases of contagious diseases were reported. The cases reported were as follows: Diphtheria, 16; measles, 3; scarlet fever, 12; typhoid fever, 39; and chicken pox, 14.

The health department collected $286 for the city, the money being received from various permits issued by them. The milk permits brought in the most money, these totaling $288. The vault permits reached the sum of $22; and the meat permits brought $59. Ice cream permits brought the city $25.

Some interesting features are shown in the report from the permits and investigations issued and conducted by this department. There were issued 110 milk permits; 419 milk analysts and dairy inspections were made; 100 meat permits were issued, and the officers of the department were kept busy investigating and inspecting meats and food stuffs, for they made 2,377 inspections during the year. Many were the complaints and nuisances reported to the department and 1,922 investigations were made.

During the year there were seven special quarantine cases; 61 fumigations and 12 prosecutions.

The deaths, according to the age of the deceased, were as follows:

Under 1 year, 71; from 1 or 2 years, 6; from 2 to 5 years, 6; total under 5 years, 83; from 5 to 10 years, 2; from 10 to 15 years, 6; from 15 to 25 years, 23; from 25 to 35 years, 17; from 35 to 45 years, 22; from 45 to 55 years, 29; from 55 to 65 years, 27; from 65 to 75 years, 43; from 75 to 85 years, 34; from 85 to 95 years, 7; total, 292.

The following record of the deaths of the males and females are given as follows: Males, 142; females, 151; married, 110; single, 115; widows, 43; widowers, 25.

During the year 202 white people died and four negroes, and almost every country of Europe was represented in the mortality report. The deaths by wards are given as follows:

First ward, 63; Second ward, 66; Third ward, 75; Fourth ward, 89.

In closing the report the interments are given:

Cedar Hill, 174; Mount Calvary, 42; taken away, 77.

BLOCKADED.

Every Household in Newark Should Know How to Resist It.

The back aches because the kidneys are blocked. Help the kidneys with their work. The back will ache no more. Lots of proof that Doan's Kidney Pills do this.

It's the best proof, for it comes from this vicinity.

Mrs. W. H. Kirk, 405 Walnut St., Mt. Vernon, Ohio, says: "Some three years ago I gave a public statement recommending Doan's Kidney Pills. At this time I cannot add anything to what I then said, except that my confidence in Doan's Kidney Pills is just as great as ever. A member of my family had suffered from kidney complaint and backache and was unable to get relief until Doan's Kidney Pills were used. They went direct to the root of the trouble and relieved all the distressing symptoms. I am willing to give Doan's Kidney Pills my re-endorsement."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

morning and passed a man who sneezed just as he passed her, but he didn't speak to her or try to hold her up." Miss Kreager is a phone operator at police headquarters and denies the story.

Home-Coming Week.

The people of the First Presbyterian church are enjoying a homecoming week, having begun the occupation of the basement of the new church for services last Sunday. They are having services every evening this week at 7:15, except Saturday, when the usual church supper will be served. All the members of the church and all the friends of the church are urged to be present every night of the home-coming week.
Strangers are also very gladly welcomed.

Add New Department.

The stock of boots and shoes of the Seymour Shoe company, on North Third street, has been purchased by the firm of Meridith Brothers, the up-to-date clothiers, and they will transfer the stock to their store at once and establish a shoe department. This particular stock is but the forerunner of what is to come, for it will be closed out immediately at sacrifice prices, and in the spring they will stock up with a new and select line of men's and boys' shoes.

Many Fish Killed.

Illegal fishers are not the only ones responsible for the lack of strikes during the open season in the waters of Licking county. In a space ten feet square, under the ice in the waters of Buckeye Lake, Game Warden Mollins Sunday counted seven black bass which would tip the scales at from one to six pounds. The drawing off of the water from the lake is responsible for the killing of tons of fish.

RAILWAY AFFAIRS

With the price of living on the increase, the wages of railway men employed in Ohio decreased during the year 1909, according to the annual report of the state railway commission, made to Governor Harmon, Saturday. The report shows that during 1908, 90,410 Ohio railway employees were paid in wages $64-187,757, while in 1909, 97,505 employees received only $61,112,641.

As a protection to passengers in the habit of forgetting and leaving parcels in the coaches on reaching their destination, E. C. Allen, superintendent of the C. & E., has issued an order to trainmen and conductors, notifying them to instruct the passengers to be careful and see that they get all their belongings when the trainmen call a station. This system will also do away with considerable annoyance caused the company in tracing lost baggage and parcels.

It is stated that unless lines interested in passenger traffic between New York and St. Louis, New York and Cincinnati, and New York and Chicago arrive at an amicable adjustment raising out of the controversy which has followed the establishment of a new fast train service a standard of time, and that on all by the New York Central lines, there is a great danger of a serious rate dispute. It was proposed to put the fast trains in question on a par with those of Chicago by the adoption of a standard of time, and that on all trains running between New York and Cincinnati in less than 21 hours and between St. Louis and New York in less than 25 hours, an excess fare be charged. So far, however, rates have not been cut.

May Increase Dividend.

Because of a resolution passed at the last dividend meeting of the board, the Pennsylvania railroad's dividends will hereafter be declared quarterly, and therefore action will be taken in the matter on or about March 1. Notwithstanding the fact that the meeting is still several weeks hence, speculation is rife as to what rate the next declaration will be. It is quite generally known that at the last meeting of the board the directors gave serious consideration to the question of increasing the annual rate to a 7 per cent basis, and that it was only after much discussion that the usual 6 per cent was finally decided upon.

INSTALLATION

Of Sons of Veterans Followed by An Enjoyable Banquet at Seiler
Hotel Monday Evening.

Monday night was an occasion that will be long remembered by the Sons of Veterans of this city as one of the most important in the history of Luscho Camp. It was the occasion of the installation of the officers of the camp, and their hall in Memorial building was crowded with Sons of Veterans, Civil War veterans and their friends. At an early hour in the evening the Boys' Drum Corps repaired to the Baltimore and Ohio depot, where they met and escorted a large number of Sons of Veterans and their friends from Mt. Vernon to the Seiler Hotel, where a lunch was served, after which the procession was formed and took up its line of march to the hall in the following order:

Flag Bearer.
Buglers.
Officer and Visitors.
Fifes and Drum Corps.
Home Camp.
Upon arriving at the hall the visitors were given a most cordial reception after which the installation services were begun, and the new officers were installed into their respective chairs. At the conclusion of the ceremonies of installation a fine banquet was served, the following being the menu:

Hot frankfurts Oyster cocktail.
Blue Points on half shell
Consomme of Italian soup
Roast young turkey
Olives and pickles
Italian pudding sauce a la champagne.
Cold slaw
Pig knuckles and sauer kraut
Mince pie Apple pie Pumpkin pie
Wafers and cheese
Tea Coffee Milk
Ice Cream Nuts
Cigars

The officers installed were as follows:
Commander—F. O. Spalding.
Sr. Vice Commander—J. W. Horner.
Jr. Vice Commander—Charles Osborn.

ter.

One of the most interesting features of the entertainment was the presentation by F. L. Beggs, on behalf of Incho Camp, Sons of Veterans of Newark, and the Department of Ohio, to Dr. C. F. Legge, the retiring commander, of "The Iron Cross," an honorary emblem presented to all retiring commanders, and is a medal highly prized by all who receive it.

DIRTY KIDNEYS ARE THE CAUSE OF LAME BACK

Kidneys, Ending Bladder Misery and All Urinary Troubles.
You Can't Begin
Too Soon.

A real surprise awaits every sufferer from kidney or bladder trouble who takes several doses of Pape's Diuretic.
Misery in the back, sides or loins, sick headache, nervousness, rheumatism, pains, heart palpitations, dizziness, sleeplessness, inflamed or swollen eyelids, lack of energy and all symptoms of out-of-order kidneys simply vanish.

Uncontrollable urination, especially at night, smarting, offensive and dis-colored water and other bladder misery ends.

The moment you suspect kidney or urinary disorder, or feel any rheumatism, begin taking this harmless medicine, with the knowledge that there is no other remedy, at any price, made anywhere else in the world, which will effect so thorough and prompt a cure as a fifty-cent treatment of Pape's Diuretic, which any druggist can supply.

It is needless to feel miserable and worried, because this unusual preparation goes at once to the out-of-order kidneys and urinary system, distributing its cleansing, healing and strengthening influence directly upon the organs and glands affected, and completes the cure before you realize it.

Your physician, pharmacist, banker or any mercantile agency will tell you that Pape, Thompson & Pape, of Cincinnati, is a large and responsible medicine concern, thoroughly worthy of your confidence.

Only curative results can come from taking Pape's Diuretic, and a few days' treatment will make any one feel

"What Shall I Render Unto the Lord My God For All His Benefits Towards Me? I Will Take the Cup of Salvation and Call Upon the Name of the Lord. I Will Pay My Vows Unto the Lord" (Psalm cxvi, 12).

"I Praise You, O Lord, by the Mouth of God, That Ye Plead Your Bodies a Living Sacrifice, Holy and Acceptable Unto God and Your Reasonable Service" (Romans xii, 1).

Once made and accepted by the Lord through the imputation of the holy Spirit, it cannot be annulled. But why should we wish to annul the Vow? Why should anyone who puts his hand to the plow look back? To use the Apostle's illustration, why should the man that was washed return to wallowing in the mire? Why should we, after having renounced the world and received the begetting of the holy Spirit, and after having tasted of the good Word of God and the powers of the Age to come, lose the precious taste and appreciation of these, and return in craving to the beggarly elements of the world? Surely there are no good reasons for so doing. Surely the joys of the present life, as well as the hopes of the Kingdom to come, all should encourage us to fully "set our affections on things above and not on the things beneath."

The world, the flesh and the Adversary—all exercise influences contrary to our Vow or Resolution to the Lord to be dead to the world and to self that we may be alive with Christ and share his glory—suffer with him, that we may reign with him. The poet has expressed the proper thought here, saying:

"My soul, be on thy guard.
Ten thousand foes arise:
The hosts of sin are pressing hard
To draw thee from the prize."

Much of our success in keeping our Vow of Consecration depends upon two things:

(1) The clearness of our grasp of the situation when we made our Vow and the thoroughness of our intention; the amount or weight thereof; the will power exerted for righteousness.

(2) An additional feature of great weight in the matter is the degree of our knowledge. It is in line with this thought that the Scriptures declare: "My people perish for lack of knowledge." God has given us his Word and informed us that it is "profitable for doctrine, for reproof and for correction in righteousness, that the man of God may be thoroughly furnished." He has advised us to search the Scriptures and to forget not the assembling of ourselves together. And where his advice is followed and the Scriptures are searched daily, not in a formal manner, but with a desire to know and to do the Lord's will and to be guided in his way, a strengthening of the will is effected. Correspondingly there is a weakening of the evil influences which oppose us as New Creatures and our Vow. The Word of God is so arranged as to provide "meat in due season" for all of his faithful people, whether old or young, in every time. As "babes in Christ," as young men and as full-grown sons of God, it is for each of us a storehouse of Grace and Truth, to make us strong in the Lord and in the power of his might. Only by appropriating this spiritual food can we have strength to fulfil our Vow, to finish our course with joy and to attain the Kingdom. Item by item, as our minds are able to grasp its unfolding prospects of glory, honor and immortality, we are thereby strengthened by the Lord's might in the inner man.

In proportion as we realize the facts of the case we may appreciate what a great bargain the Lord has offered us. We surrender in consecration our earthly rights, privileges and pleasures, and receive in return more happy spiritual blessings in the present life and the inheritance of the unspeakable blessings and glories of the future. It should, therefore, become much more easy to pay our Vows with a willing heart, as we grow in grace and in knowledge of the Lord and his Word. Indeed, as the Apostle suggests, it is possible for us to reach the place where we can "rejoice in tribulation also"—knowing that thereby our future blessing is increased.

"What Shall I Render?" As the consecrated believer considers what God has already done, and what he proposes yet to do for his faithful, gratitude wells up in his heart and he inquires, "What shall I render unto the Lord for all his benefits?" The more he considers the matter, the more he realizes that his talents and opportunities are necessarily small, insignificant. It is from this standpoint that the poet wrote, "O for a thousand tongues to sing my great Redeemer's praise."

It is well indeed to show our appreciation of God's grace by songs of thankfulness and praise, but we are to remember that not merely poetic cadences are our acceptable songs, but that from the proper standpoint life itself is the proper hymn of praise to be continually rendered to the King of kings. "Singing and making melody in our hearts unto the Lord" will imply that our works will be in harmony with a song of life" (Ephesians v, 19).

Taking the Cup. The Psalmist's answer, prophetically represents the attitude of heart of all the faithful. Each is expected to say, "I will take the Cup of Salvation and call upon the name of the Lord" (Psalm cxvi, 12). The cup of salvation at the present time is the "Cup" which our Lord proffered to his disciples, saying, "This is my blood of the New Covenant shed for many for the remission of sins. Drink ye all of it" (Matthew xxii, 27, 28). It is a "Cup" of suffering, self-denial, self-sacrifice, as subjects the earthly things which we give up, surrender, that we may attain the heavenly things as joint-heirs with our Redeemer. There might be danger, however, of some getting the wrong thought on this subject. There is a peculiar pleasure in drinking of the Lord's cup of self-sacrifice, which those who have never partaken of can not hope to understand. It is the pleasure of fellowship in his sufferings, as St. Paul explains. And a part of the pleasure connected with that "cup" is the associated hope of drinking with our Lord of his other cup of joy and glory and blessing in the Kingdom, as he promised.

The necessity of partaking of this "Cup" of the Lord is shown by the Savior's words to two of his disciples who inquired, saying, "Lord, grant that we may sit with thee, the one on thy right hand and the other on thy left hand in the Kingdom." Our Lord's reply was that they little realized what this high privilege of sitting in the Millennial Throne with him would cost. He inquired, "Are ye able to drink of the cup that I shall drink of?" (Matthew xx, 22)—the cup of suffering, ignominy, dishonor, death—"and to be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?"—not the baptism into water, but into that which is symbolized by the water—a baptism into his death. The apostles indicated their willingness. And we can do no more. If left to ourselves, undoubtedly the contract would be more than we would be sufficient for. Our sufficiency is of God's providence—our great Redeemer is our High Priest and Advocate, able to succor us in every time of need, and able to provide ways of escape from trials too hard for us; able to strengthen us when weak; able to give us the "meat in due season;" able to make us strong in his might; able to bring to our attention the great and precious promises of God's Word. Yea, says St. Paul, "I can do all things through Christ, which strengtheneth me" (Philippians iv, 13).

"In the Presence of All the People." In the context the prophet declares, "I will pay my Vows unto the Lord in the presence of all the people." Publicly, openly, I will espouse the Lord's Cause. I will remember his words, "Whosoever shall be ashamed of me, and of my words, of him also shall the Son of Man be ashamed, when he cometh in the glory of his Father, with the holy angels" (Mark viii, 38). I will be faithful in the performance of my Covenant to such a degree that my loyalty shall be known to all the brethren as well as to the Lord, who reads the heart. Yea, and the worldly should know of the faithfulness of God's people, even though, not appreciating the matter, they should despise them and count them fools for Christ's sake.

Vows of this kind are not for the worldly, even though they be morally disposed. They are yet in their sins, if they reject the offer of Divine forgiveness upon Divine terms of consecration. Such may not think to take Vows of consecration to the Lord until first they have renounced wilful sin and accepted redemption through faith in the precious blood. Until then they remain amongst the wicked. "Unto the wicked God said, What hast thou to do to take my words into thy mouth (as a Vow) seeing thou hatest instruction and castest my words behind thee" (Psalm i, 17). All who do not wish Divine instruction, all who spurn the Lord's Word, are in this sense wicked. In a wrong condition of heart. We are glad that there is no truth in the theory that they are liable to eternal torture, but oh, how much they are missing, nevertheless, of the joys of the Lord in this present time and of the glories and eternal blessings of the future!

In closing, dear friends, let me suggest to you a little Vow unto the Lord—not as instead of your Consecration Vow, which is all-comprehensive, but as supplemental thereto—as specifying certain matters, which are indeed part and parcel of your Consecration Vow. The thought is that by this Vow these particular features of your obligation will be daily more prominently before your mind. It is my belief that the taking of it earnestly and soberly, and the keeping of it, would be one of the wisest New Year's Resolutions that God's people could make—most helpful to them in the peculiar time in which we are living.

A Vow Unto the Lord. 1. Our Father which art in Heaven, hallowed be Thy name. May Thy rule come into my heart more and more, and Thy will be done in my mind and body. Relying on the assistance of Thy promised grace to help in every time of need, through Jesus Christ our Lord, I register this Vow.

2. Daily will I remember at the Throne of Heavenly Grace the general interests of the harvest work, and particularly the share which I myself am privileged to enjoy in that work, and the dear collaborators at the Brooklyn Tabernacle, and everywhere.

3. I vow to still more carefully, if possible, scrutinize my thoughts and words and doings, to the intent that I may be the better enabled to serve Thee and Thy dear flock.

4. I vow to Thee that I will be on the alert to resist everything akin to Spiritism and Occultism, and that, remembering that there are but two masters, I shall resist these snares in all reasonable ways, as being of the Adversary.

5. I further vow that, with the exceptions below, I will at all times, and in all places, conduct myself toward those of the opposite sex in private exactly as I would do with them in public—in the presence of a congregation of the Lord's people.

6. And, so far as reasonably possible, I will avoid being in the same room with one of the opposite sex alone, unless the door to the room stand wide open.

ORRINE DOES CURE DRUNKENNESS

This is a positive fact known to tens of thousands of wives and mothers of this land. They know Orrine is a reliable remedy for the cure of drunkenness, because it has restored their loved ones to lives of sobriety and usefulness. Every wife and mother who has bought Orrine with full confidence that it would effect a cure or their money would be refunded to them if it failed. This guarantee is in each box. No other remedy for the cure of drunkenness is sold with this liberal guarantee, but Orrine has been so uniformly successful that the makers want the buyers to know that they have full protection if it should fail in any instance. We never publish letters of patients but recently this letter came to us from Dr. Nolte, 4th and Race Sts., Philadelphia, Pa. It reads: "I can tell you will readily appreciate why Orrine is so well thought of."

My wife, Mrs. E. B. Rader, has been a patient under my personal observation. The patient drank heavily for fifteen years and reached a degraded condition, which caused the breaking up of his family and separation from his wife. Every hope was given up of his being sane, and he was in a strong desire to drink and was in a measure unable to abstain from it. I recommended Orrine, your liquor habit cure, and the treatment was taken. The patient is now in this city in good condition and still abstains from the use of stimulants. I have sold Orrine for a number of years and have never found it to be satisfactory. I believe you have an exceptionally good treatment for this disease.

Orrine is prepared in two forms. No. 1, a powder, absolutely tasteless and harmless, given secretly in food or drink. No. 2, in pill form, suitable for those who wish to cure themselves. Orrine costs only $1 a box. The name is on each box. Write for Free Orrine Booklet (mailed in plain sealed envelope) to Orrine Co., 616 Orrine Building, Washington, D. C. Or write for same to this city, by Hall's Drug Store, 10 N. Side Square.

They know Orrine is a reliable and effective remedy for drunkenness and they will not offer you a substitute.

BEECH WOODS

While he was away from home E. A. Drum's cows broke down the pen and piled their way into his corn crib devouring his fine assortment of seed corn.

Mrs. Maggie Miller has been quite sick this week.

A sleighing party coupled Jerry Turner's big sled to the rear of their special Friday evening car and it nearly a mile to Mrs. Alice Baker's residence and side tracked. It bears the marks of hard usage as one of the runners was broken.

A sled load composed of Charles Foster, wife and son, Lewis Winegardner and Ervin Miller, while returning from Rushville, New Year's night, met with a smash up near the residence of the Drum sisters. One of the horses slipped and got down in the deep side ditch and a runner broke on the sled, letting the passengers overboard with their goods.

Groceries and wearing apparel were found along the road for several hundred feet. Outside of bruises no serious injury was done.

Solomon Cooper of Johnstown and son William of South Dakota were guests of Samuel Coyer and family this week.

Charles Miller's team slipped and fell in a steep side ditch with a sled load of wood Saturday evening near Marsh's church. After the team was gotten out and the wood reloaded the team with difficulty succeeded in carrying it to the end of its journey over the icy roads.

Ranger Church fell from a wagon New Year's day and dislocated one of his shoulder blades.

Ray Gordon is visiting relatives near Findlay this week.

Edward Dilts of Ada is visiting friends and relatives in this vicinity.

The church going people through here were unable to reach the various churches here Sunday, owing to the icy roads. There was no preaching at Oakthorpe or Drum's on account of the preacher being unable to be present.

Word has been received here from Columbus that Thurman Williams, a former resident of this place is suffering with blood poisoning, which threatens to result in the loss of both arms.

Sample Helps Frail Women

So many women are dragging out weary lives just because their digestive organs are weak. The result is poor circulation, nervousness and the verge of invalidism. It is often very unnecessary and the woman's own fault.

The first thing to do is to look to the welfare of your bowels. There the trouble usually lies. All physicians know that constipated bowels are the cause of many ailments. Constipation is a habitually constipated, and from this suits indigestion, piles, weariness, etc.

Women constantly complain of "headache," "dizziness," "nervousness" and things of that kind until you have started your bowels to moving. You will find that in the bowels move regularly once or twice a day all your petty ills will disappear. Take a good, mild laxative tonic like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin for awhile and you will see your bowels getting better and stronger, your bowels will regulate themselves and work at stated times, and then your headache, dizziness, nervousness, etc., will disappear. Don't take strong cathartic pills or salts, but just such a mild and pleasant acting remedy as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.

You can obtain a bottle of your druggist for fifty cents or one dollar, and it will cure you. Thousands of women keep it regularly in the house and will no longer be without it as it cured them and can be used by any one. It is a member of the family, down to the youngest child, but if you have never used it take the advice of Mrs. Carl S. Cox, Dr. Caldwell's "Friend Mother," and Mrs. Ellen Dungan, Muncie, Ind., and send to Dr. Caldwell for a free trial bottle. As the old adage says, "Learn for yourself what it will do in your own case." It will cure you, as it did them, there is no doubt.

Dr. Caldwell personally will be pleased to give you any medical advice you may desire for yourself or family pertaining to stomach, liver, bowels absolutely free of charge. Explain your case in a letter and he will reply to you in detail. For the free sample simply send your name and address on a card or otherwise. For either request the doctor's address is Dr. W. E. Caldwell, R. 510 Caldwell Building, Mount Airy, N. C.

EQUAL TO POE AND DOYLE.

Much discussion has been caused by the publication in the New York World of Anna Katherine Greene's new novel, "The House of the Whispering Pines." Many reviewers have claimed that this excels the best mystery work of Poe, Doyle, the creator of Sherlock Holmes, or Gaboriau. Others disagree. Be that as it may, Anna Katherine Green has perpetuated her fame by her wonderful detective stories. By far the greatest work of her life is the celebrated "Leavenworth Case," and on account of the great interest felt in this writer the New York Sunday World will publish this wonderful detective novel in five 24,000 word booklets, each free with the Sunday World. The first one appears Sunday, Jan. 9. Order a copy from newsdealers.

CHARITY WORK

As Carried On in Columbus Will Be Explained at Newark Meeting Next Friday.

Mr. O. W. Davis, superintendent of the Columbus Associated Charities, will meet with the Newark Association Friday evening at 8 o'clock in the Auditorium of Trust Building.

It is his purpose to tell the citizens of Newark of the work as carried on in Columbus and lay plans for a stronger organization here. Every one interested in charity work is urged to attend this meeting.

Collier's says the "Associated Charities" are more than small charities, but what might be called part of the staff of a small town, a new agency which concerns itself with health, housing, the relief of poverty, the improvement of living conditions.

On a volunteer basis it takes its place beside the local fire department, police, schools and the like. The development of associated charities is very quiet and unobtrusive, but in the long run it is going to give a social viewpoint to the common activities of many of the smaller cities and towns.
